Fall 2014 Revised Math TEKS Update

New Math TEKS Bring Massive Changes to Grades 3 to 8

New financial literacy standards are just the tip of the iceberg. Concepts across the categories have been moved a grade lower, altered, clarified, moved to later grades, or even eliminated. Texas' teachers are on the hunt for effective, high-quality materials that faithfully align to these new TEKS.

Trust revised DynaNotes student course notes to help you sharpen your plans and make your chosen curriculum more effective. With updated DynaNotes scaffolding, now TWICE AS LONG, students can work more independently and experience that great feeling of progress that re-energizes student effort.

When Will Updated DynaNotes Tools Become Available?

- ✓ Student course notes in classic cardstock, Teacher CD, and DynaNotes Plus app license formats (English versions only):
 - Grades 3 to 5: by August 2014
 - Grades 6 to 8: estimated by October 2014
- ✓ TEA reference materials (English versions only): by August 2014
- ✓ MathMatch card decks (fractions, decimals, finance): available now

In most cases ...

... the new TEKS give more specificity. But there are exceptions.

When will students first be expected to convert between mixed numbers and improper fractions?

Search the new TEKS and you may scratch your head for a bit (answer is 4th grade).
