World History – Write to Understand

You are writing a diary entry during the Classical Era (some time between 500 BC and 600 AD). Choose your role (type of person you are), a location, and a more specific time period. Use pages 2 and 3 of the DynaNotes World History End-of-Course student review guide to come up with an idea, and then fill in the blanks below.

role: _____ location: _____ century or year: _____

Choose three terms that relate to your ideas from Classical Era (on pages 2 and 3) and write them on the lines below.

_____ _____ _____

Write a short, creative diary entry that uses each of the three terms. Circle the words wherever they appear.

Scoring: 3 points for demonstrating that you understand what each term means
3 points for a historically accurate or plausible diary entry
1 point for good writing mechanics (grammar, capitalization, punctuation, and spelling)
